

SEASONAL DOODLES GAME

Items needed:

- Timing device (30 seconds) - phone clock/timer works well (one minute was too long for our group of ladies)
- Printed Season Cards enough for each team to have a set of 4 different seasons. (Printing the cards: individual cards sizes are 2 1/2" x 3 1/4". If you trim 1/2 inch off the top and 2 sides of the sheet and 3/4 inch off the bottom; your cards should be easy to cut into the proper size)
- Paper for drawing
- Pencils for drawing

How to play the game:

If you did not use the Mix-it-Up Game, divide the ladies into teams (See Mix-it Up Game for a season based idea). Each team chooses four people to take a turn drawing and each of those four is given one of the Drawing Lists (spring, summer, fall, winter). They are not to show it to any other teammates (not even the other drawers).

Begin the game with the drawers who are holding the card "Things that have to do with spring." When the timer begins, the drawer from each team will have 30 seconds to get her team to guess the object IN THE ORDER THEY APPEAR ON THE CARD. She may not move on to another object until her team guesses the current object correctly.

Additional rules:

You may not use numbers or letters. No noises allowed.

You may use a "sounds like" symbol.

When the time is up, circle the objects guessed correctly. If a team finishes their card before the time runs out, they should raise their hands and be assigned a finishing number (1, 2, 3).

Continue the game with the next Season Card. The drawers from each team holding "Things that have to do with summer" would go next, having 30 seconds to get her team to guess the objects on her card in the proper order.

The game continues the same with the fall and winter Season Cards.

The winner - Each team gets one point for each correct guess on all four Season Cards.

Bonus points are given to the teams with early finishing numbers. For every 1 (1st to finish) they get 5 bonus points; 2 (2nd to finish) = 3 points; 3(3rd to finish) = 2 points. The team with the most points wins.
